

Mayor Mallory's Message for the Week, November 21, 2006

Mayor Mallory Announces Budget Priorities

Mayor Mark Mallory released his budget recommendations to City Council. The Mayor has recommended several changes to the City Manager's proposed 2007/2008 City Budget.

"The best way to strengthen and grow our city is by investing in our people," Mayor Mallory said. "A balanced budget is about more than numbers. We have to have balance in how we prioritize life in our city."

In his comments to Council, the Mayor recommended that the budget invest in people and focus on the following priorities:

- Public Safety
- Youth Employment
- Recreation
- Neighborhood Development
- The Arts
- Human Services
- Economic Development
- Good Government.

- Read the Mayor's Budget Comments to City Council
- Watch the Mayor's Press Conference announcing his Budget Recommendations
- Read the release about the Mayor's Budget Comments
- Read the release about the Mayor's Budget Forum